DEDICATION

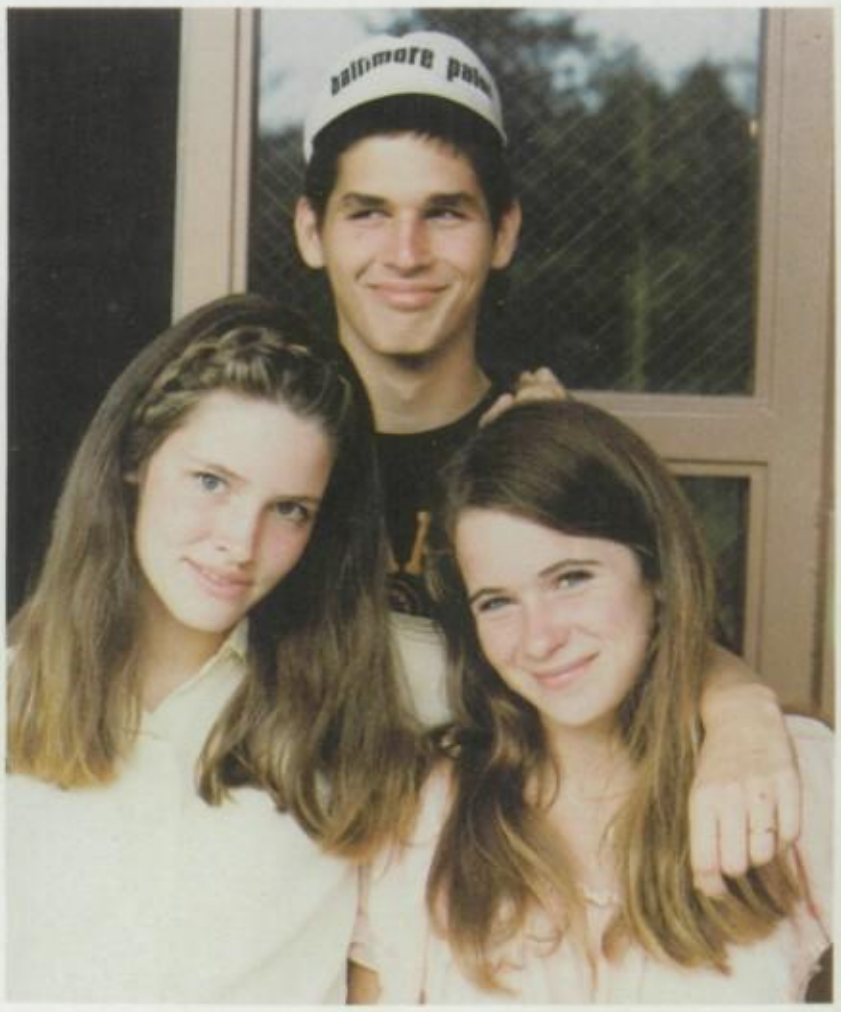
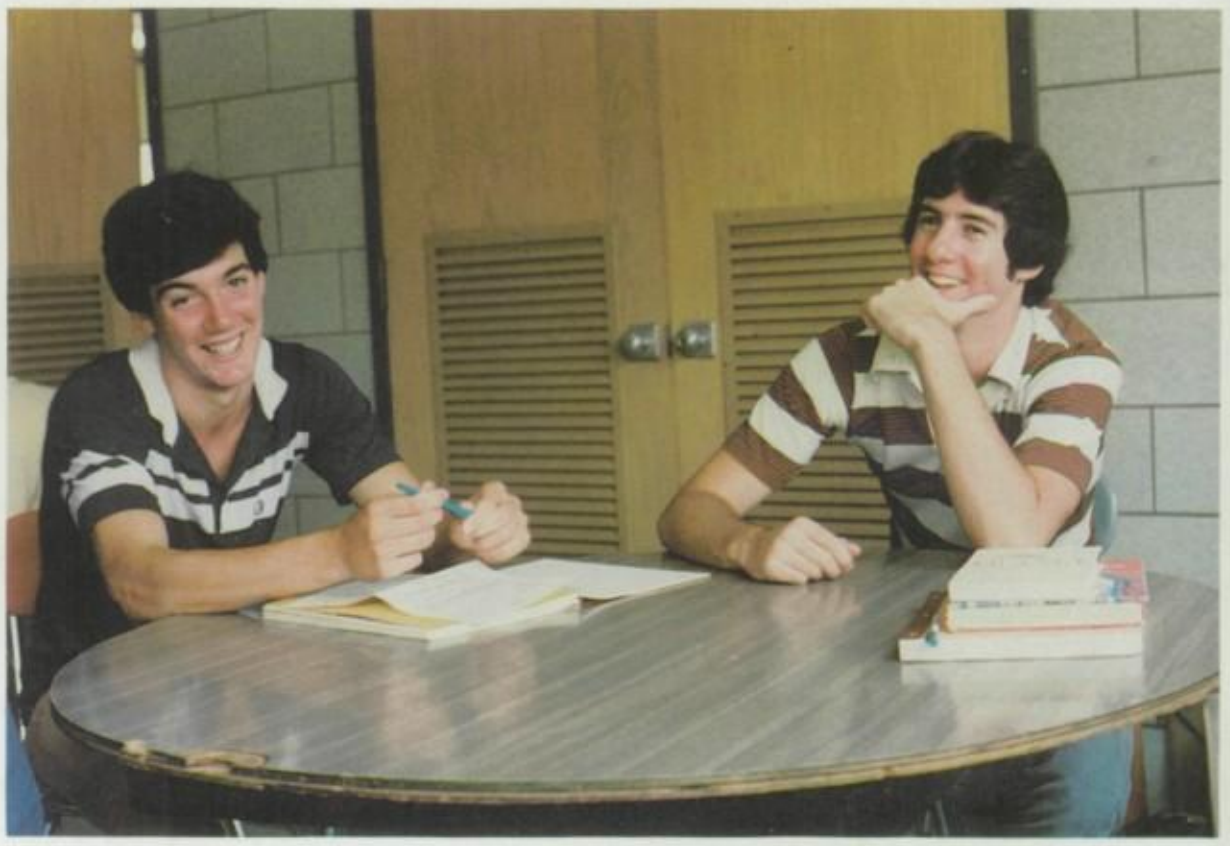
We, Branford High School's Senior Class of 1982, in appreciation for her selfless devotion of time and energy, dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Donna Gaglardi. Throughout our past four years, Mrs. Gaglardi has devoted her self to making our class successful in all our undertakings. She has consistantly encouraged us to set high goals and helped us to achieve those goals. For her unfailing support, we gratefully dedicate to her our 1982 Milestone.

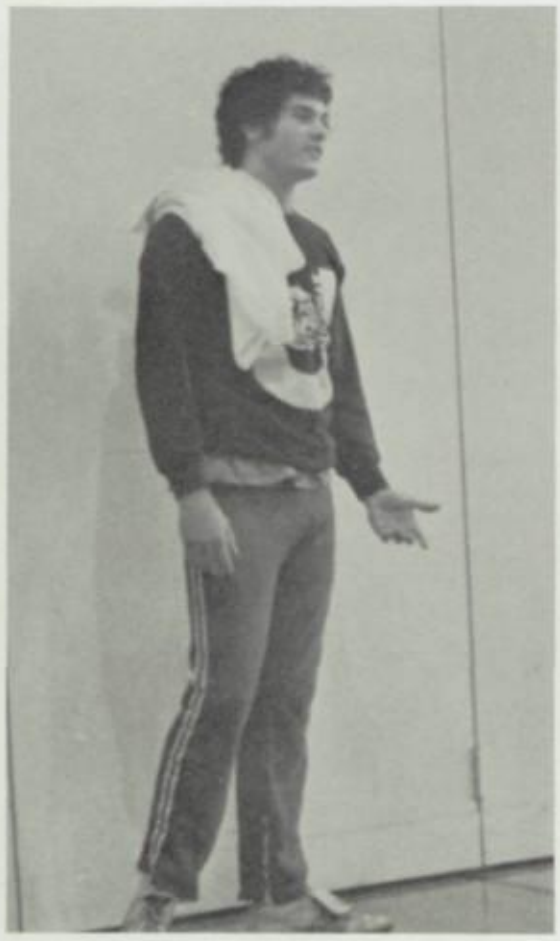




We Walk Together,

Side By Side

On Sands Of
Our Memories.



Waves Wash Up

And Erase Our Past Footprints,

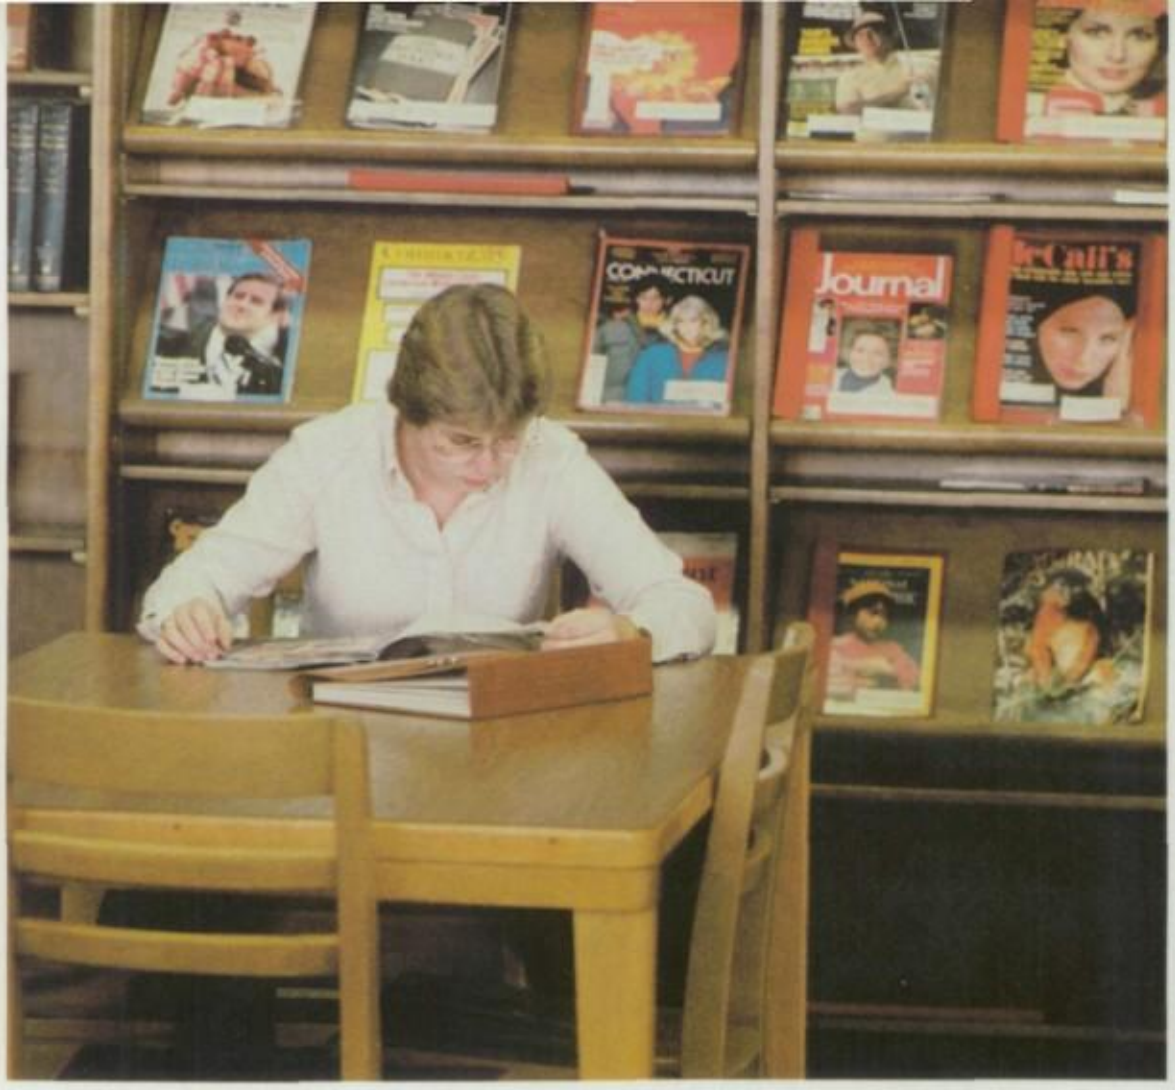
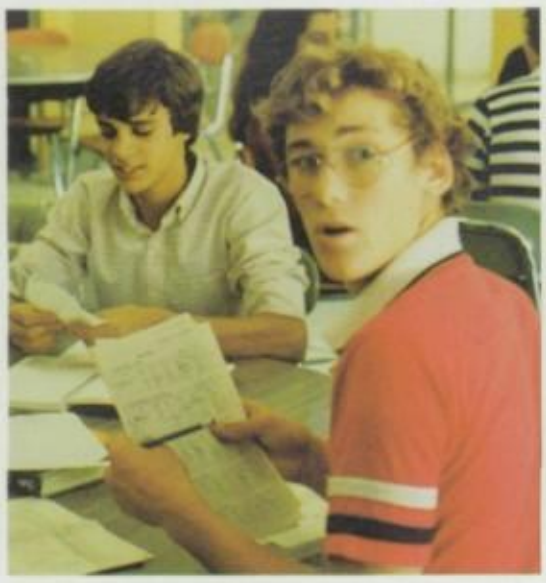
But We Remember
The Way We Came.

And We Walk,

Still Together.



There Is No End
To Our Beach



Or To Our Friendship.

The Sands Of Our Future Stretch Ahead

And We Will Walk Them . . .

Together.

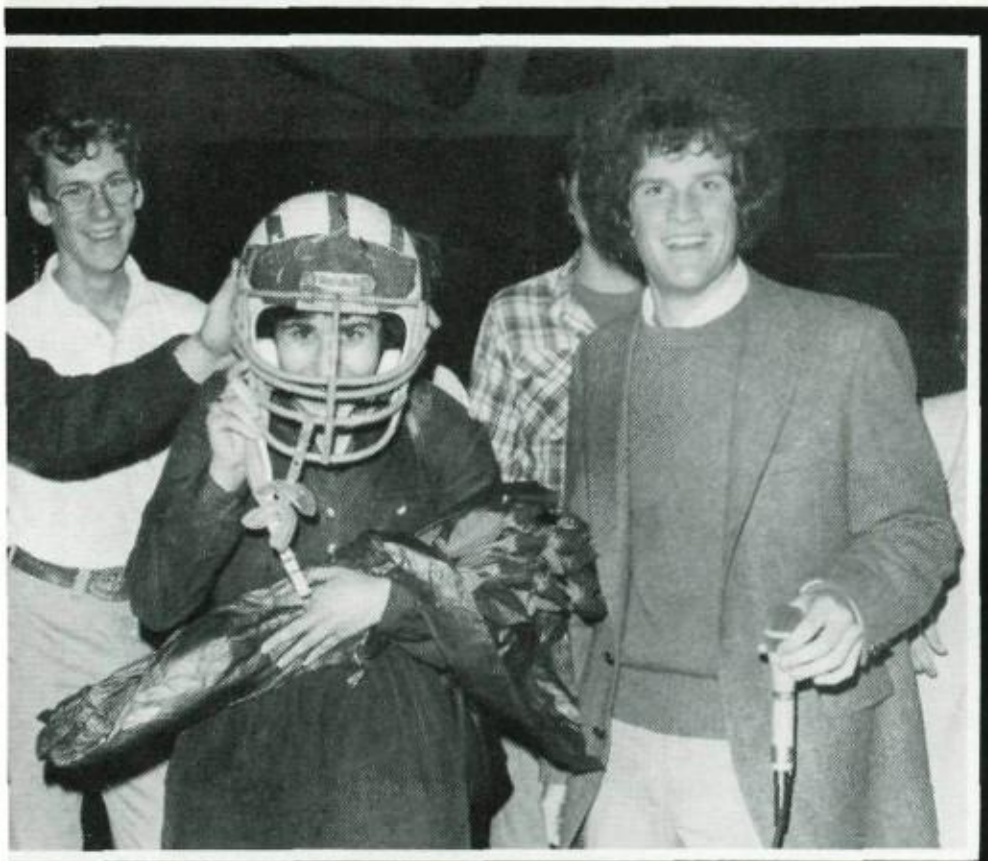
THE VARSITY DRAG

The Varsity Drag, sponsered by the Student Council, is one of our school's most enjoyable evenings. It is held, traditionally, prior to the Thanksgiving Day Football game. The Drag promotes enthusiastic school spirit, and offers the students a chance to salute the senior members of the football and soccer teams. It is these senior sportsmen who elect the Varsity Drag Queen. The election is one of the highlights of the evening.

With Rival's very danceable tunes, this year's Varsity Drag was both successful and a lot of fun.



ALLISON ROSS crowned Varsity Drag Queen.

TARA O'CONNOR swings at the drag.

AN EVENING IN PARIS

Yvonne and her date enjoy a slow dance.

As we've searched
throughout our lives
Reaching for and dreaming of our Paris,
We've found
along the way,
Each other and ourselves.
We've journeyed
to find a world
of beauty and of dreams,
Yet the journey's
not ended.
It will never end.
for Paris,
like our dreams,
Is immortal..

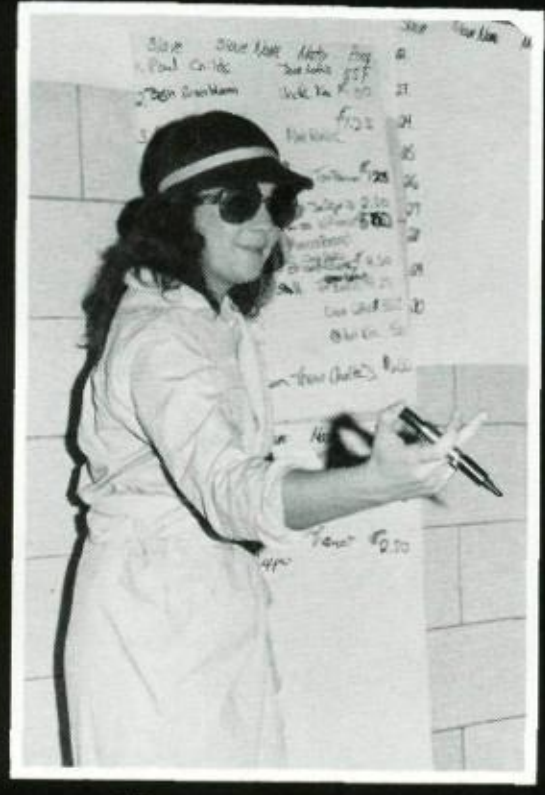
LATIN DAY

The Latin Day Slave Auction is a fund raising event sponsored annually by the Latin Club. Its main function is to give Latin I students a taste of Roman culture in an interesting and entertaining manner.

"I'll take her!"



"How much was that?"

"How much would YOU pay for her?"

"She has hairy legs, but she'll do."

"You'd pay $2.00 for HER?!"

FOOTBALL

8-2-0

Congratulations to the 1981-1982 Branford football team and their head coach Rich Cavanaugh. The team's record of 8-2 qualified them to participate in the state championship game, Class M 1. The fall season was consummated when Branford beat East Haven, while led by tri-captains Jim Cast, John DeCaprio, and Mike Heffernan. Among the team of talented and assiduous players, four were named to the All-Housatonic League: Jim Cast, Paul Riccio, Dan Travisano, and Dan Cudgma. Junior, Dan Cudgma was also named as the recipient of the Register's All State Award.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

17-1-0

The 1981-82 girls' basketball team, led by coaches Dave Maloney (Varsity) and Paul Freud (Junior Varsity), will be remembered as one of the finest in Branford's history. An awesome display of sharp passing, scoring, letterwomen, and promising sophomores and juniors helped the Hornets ambush many an opponent. The three "T's" tell the story behind the team's success - Tallness, Talent, and Teamwork. Behind the forecourt of Tracey Brownell, Beth Chandler, Bethany Collins, and Renee Seeley, who average better than 6'0" on the tape measure, B.H.S. was able to out rebound and intimidate their foes night in and night out. Seeley, who was moved to forward this year after two years as the starting center (where she was an All-Housy performer), captured honors in setting new career highs in all rebounding departments. The talented backcourt trio of Kim Linsley, a stalwart on defense, Meg Clapp, a top outside shooter, and Krista Blomquist, a top floor general and shooter, joined the Hornet front line in scoring in the double digits many a night spelling v-i-c-t-o-r-y for B.H.S. Making the Lady Hornets a total team, were veteran guards Barbara Thompson and Susan Krause, who provided the much needed depth over the long winter season.

HOCKEY

8-11-1

The 1981-82 hockey team had an outstanding season. They overcame many difficulties, mainly having to play division I teams when only being division II. Playing these tough teams gave Branford excellent experience. They all played to the best of their ability. Although we had a tough schedule, Branford shined with high scorers like Steve Boulas and Mitch Singer who ranked fourth and fifth in the area. The team is coached by Andy Porto and Michael DeSorbo.

THE RENOVATION OF

After five years of intense planning, the renovations and additions of Branford High School have begun. The $6.8 million project began with groundbreaking in October 1981 and is scheduled to be completed by 1984.

The design of the "new" school was done by a local architect, Edward Johnson. His plans include: an elaborate two-storied, naturally lighted, solar heated gymnasium . . .

The project is going to take a long time but in the end it will be well worth the noise and confusion experienced at the High School now.

MAJORETTES

"Majorettes" is an activity for girls who wish to show spirit and support their school football team. They do a halftime show to entertain the people in the stands. Also, some parades are done to represent B.H.S. "Majorettes" is fun and enjoyable to the girls and they try to get everyone in the spirit.

This past year, drama chose to perform "Dark of The Moon" written by Richardson and Birney. Through the talents of the cast, the love story of Barbara, and John, the witch boy, was artfully recreated. Mrs. Maria Ogren efficiently directed rehearsals, and when opening night arrived she imparted confidence to the somewhat anxious cast. The final result of the three December evenings was that of high spirited, and dedicated performances, not just for cast, but crew as well.

MILESTONE

The Milestone staff is a group of hard working students who work all year putting together the yearbook. They all work long hours, night and day, trying to finish layouts and meet deadlines. Faculty advisors are Mr. Ralph E. Fuller and Mrs. Patricia Barone, who both devote much time and effort to have the staff build the best possible 1982 yearbook.

Row 2: Dana Conway, Ken Mason, Kathy Ammann, Carl Stiles, Laura Olszewski, Filomena Pascarella.

MILESTONE

As Editor-in-Chief of the 1982 Milestone I would like to thank the Milestone Staff for all their hard work and dedication. Without this, the 1982 Milestone would not have been such a great success. In addition to this a few members went above and beyond the call of duty. At this time I would personally like to thank the following members: Carl Stiles '83, Chris Noonan '83, Dawn Williams '84, Sharon Ezold '84, Pam DeLise '84.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Roland Kratzer.

Row 1: Hilary Buchanan, Megan Barrett, Marcia Bennett. Row 2: David Chioffi, Malcolm Kratzer.

Beginning with its summertime painting of the teachers' lounge, the 81-82 Student Council was a busy one. Among the year's events were the Varsity Drag, International Supper, meetings with the administration concerning school policy and renovations, and refreshment stand and carnation sales. Moreover, the Student Council of 81-82 donated more money to senior scholarships than any before it!!

Row 1: Paul Nanamaker, Robert Burkard, Michael Penta, Maria Iaderosa, Lynne Sandrey, Mary-Ellen Smith, Lisa Kovi, Holly Reed, Mary-Kate Conte, Justine Lyons, Dawn Williams, Mark Chioffi, Mark FitzGerald, Gregory Yvars, Ian Engelman. Row 2: Greg Sachs, Karen Albert, Lance Nelson, Marcia Bennett, Susan Shields, Kari Ezold, Sue Polastri, Jessica Bendinger, Sue Lecza, Glenna DeSarbo, Pam DeLise, Filomena Pascarella, Amy Moon, Sharon Ezold, Matt Radulski, Thano Chaltas, Jim Rowe, Jody Trapasso, Donna Kligerman. Row 3: Debra Galdenzi, Rain Johnson, Liz Shine, Joan Stopka, Mary Zack, Laura Olszewski, Dana Conway, Amy Olszewski.

The students on the Literary Magazine enjoy expressing their feelings through poetry. The students develop their own style and are encouraged to do so. The Literary Magazine publishes two magazines yearly.

Getting stories, writing, editing, typing, deadlines are all processes a reporter must go through. The newspaper staff is composed of students who enjoy writing about events in and outside of school, and then expressing the news through the school paper, The Banner. Besides being an enjoyable experience, reporting also helps to develop one's skills of working with others, and develops and refines one's writing abilities.

NATIONAL HONOR

The purpose of the National Honor Society is fourfold:
To create an enthusiasm for
SCHOLORSHIP
To Stimulate a desire to render SERVICE
To promote LEADERSHIP
To develop CHARACTER

The following quote sums up the whole concept of the Honor Society.
"If someday they say of me that in my work I have contributed something to the welfare and happiness of my fellow man, I shall be satisfied."

IN MEMORIAM

The Class of 1982 pauses to remember a fellow classmate and friend, Mark Blomquist. Bloomer's friendliness and infectious smile will always be remembered by everyone who knew him at Branford High School. During Mark's serious illness, our thoughts were with him. He is a dear friend that will always be remembered.
